

Chat GPT Prompt - Islamic Will (Free)

COPY AND PASTE PROMPT

[You are an expert Islamic wills drafter. I need you to prepare my free Shari'a-compliant will, valid under English law, based on my answers below. The will should follow the Qur'anic inheritance rules (I will specify my school of thought). Please draft it in clear, professional legal wording. Where something does not apply to me, insert [IRRELEVANT]. Also include schedules to list my heirs, assets, accounts, and wishes.

(ANSWER THE QUESTIONS AS RELEVANT)

1. Full Name:
2. Date of Birth:
3. Gender:
4. Address:
5. Email:
6. Mobile Number:
7. School of Thought (Hanafi, Shafi'i, Maliki, Hanbali):
8. Do you already have a will?
9. Are you domiciled in the UK?
10. Marriage status (Nikah, Civil, Unmarried):
11. Is your spouse alive? If yes, full name:
12. Are your parents alive? (Father, Mother, Both, None):

13. Do you have an accountant/tax advisor? Name/email:
14. Do you want executors to obtain professional tax advice? (Yes/No):
15. Burial wishes (UK, abroad, nearest Muslim cemetery, etc.):
16. Do you own a company? (Yes/No):
17. Are you a shareholder/director? (Yes/No):
18. Company details:
19. Who should control the company after your death?
20. Who should inherit your shares?
21. Where are most of your assets located (UK/abroad)?
22. Does your estate exceed £325,000? (Yes/No):
23. List your assets (life insurance, jewellery, investments, pensions, etc.):
24. Pensions/trusts/benefits received:
25. Real estate owned (full addresses, and whether jointly or solely owned):
26. Bank accounts (names, numbers ending XXXX, and ownership type):
27. Mortgages, debts, leases, liabilities:
28. Children (full names, DOBs, ages):
29. Grandchildren (if any):
30. Brothers/sisters (number):
31. Half-siblings (number):
32. Legal guardians for minor children (names/addresses):
33. Should guardians act jointly or severally?
34. Executors (names/addresses, plus backup):
35. Should executors act jointly or severally?
36. Charity (name and percentage of estate):
37. Specific gifts (items or percentages, to named people):
38. Messages of kindness (optional):

39. Other wishes (e.g., spouse first option, orphan sponsorship, consultation with spouse):

When you finish drafting, include:

- The full Will
- Schedules (heirs, assets, accounts, liabilities, wishes)
- A non-binding Letter of Wishes if I've included special guidance (like "my spouse should inherit first if heirs agree").

The will must be valid under English law and Shari'a compliant.]

TRY A SIMPLER PROMPT

[You are an expert Islamic will drafter. Please help me create my free Shari'a-compliant will under English law.

I will answer your questions one by one. Please draft my will in clear and professional wording.

My will should:

- Follow the Islamic laws of inheritance (according to my school of thought).
- Be valid under English law.
- Include burial wishes, executors, guardians, heirs, and charity.
- List my assets and liabilities in schedules.
- Insert [IRRELEVANT] where something does not apply.
- Add a non-binding Letter of Wishes if I have extra personal requests.

Here are the questions you should ask me (one by one):

1. What is your full name, date of birth, gender, address, email and phone number?
2. Which madhhab (school of thought) do you follow? (Hanafi, Shafi'i, Maliki, Hanbali, or Ja'fari).
3. Are you domiciled in the UK?
4. What is your marital status? (Nikah, Civil, Unmarried). If married, is your spouse alive? What is their full name?
5. Are your parents alive? (Father, Mother, Both, None).
6. Do you have children? Please list their full names, dates of birth and ages.
7. Do you have grandchildren? If yes, list them.

8. Do you have brothers, sisters, or half-siblings? If yes, how many?
9. Who would you like to act as legal guardians for your children (if they are under 18)? Please give names and addresses. Should they act jointly or severally?
10. Who would you like to act as executors of your estate? Please give names and addresses, and a backup executor. Should they act jointly or severally?
11. What are your burial wishes? (e.g. nearest Muslim cemetery, country, Islamic rites, no autopsy unless required).
12. Do you own a company or business? If yes, give details.
13. Do you have shares in a company? Who should inherit them?
14. Where are most of your assets located (UK or abroad)?
15. Does your estate exceed £325,000?
16. Please list your assets (properties, bank accounts, investments, pensions, life insurance, jewellery, ISAs, digital assets, livestock, etc.).
17. Please list your debts, mortgages, leases, or liabilities.
18. Do you have pensions, trusts, or benefits? Please describe.
19. Do you want to leave any specific gifts (items or percentages) to named people?
20. Do you want to leave part of your estate to charity? If yes, give the charity's name and percentage of the estate.
21. Do you want to include any special requests or personal wishes? (For example: your spouse should receive the estate first if all heirs consent; continue orphan sponsorship; messages for your family).

After I answer these questions, please:

- Draft my full Islamic Will.
- Add Schedules (listing heirs, assets, bank accounts, liabilities, wishes).
- Show the estate division according to my madhhab (using the Qur'anic shares).
- Create a Letter of Wishes if I have written any non-binding personal guidance.]

CHECKLIST

- You copied and pasted the prompt.
- You answered the questions.
- You listed all the correct names, spellings, dates of birth and addresses.
- You read over it, printed and followed the signing prompt below.

↳ The Islamic Command

In the Qur'an, Allah says:

"It is prescribed for you, when death approaches any one of you, if he leaves wealth, that he makes a bequest (wasiyyah) for parents and near relatives, according to what is acceptable – a duty upon the righteous." (Qur'an 2:180)

From the Sunnah, The Prophet ﷺ said:

"It is not right for a Muslim who has anything to bequeath to spend two nights without having his will written down." (Bukhari, Muslim)

↳ Why Every Muslim Should Have a Will

- Ensures your estate is shared according to Shari'a.
- Protects your spouse and children's rights.
- Appoints guardians for your children.
- Records your assets, debts, and wishes.
- Prevents family disputes.
- Allows you to leave sadaqah jariyah (ongoing charity).
- Meets both Islamic obligation and UK legal requirement.

↳ How It Works

1. Copy the Will Builder Prompt below.
2. Paste it into ChatGPT.
3. Answer the questions one by one.
4. Receive your personalised, Shari'a-compliant will.
5. Print it, sign it in front of two adult witnesses (not beneficiaries), and store it safely.

The Islamic Will Builder Prompt

This tool is for personal use. It produces a Shari'a-compliant will under English law. For complicated estates (businesses, foreign assets, trusts, tax planning), seek advice from a solicitor.

FAQs

1. Is this will legally valid in the UK?

Yes, provided you sign it correctly in front of two independent adult witnesses, who are present at the same time. Witnesses cannot be beneficiaries of your will.

2. Will my will definitely be Shari'a compliant?

Yes, your estate is divided according to the Qur'anic shares of your chosen madhhab (Hanafi, Shafi'i, Maliki, or Hanbali).

3. Can I leave my whole estate to my spouse or children?

No – Shari'a has fixed shares for heirs. However, you may include a non-binding Letter of Wishes asking heirs to give up some of their inheritance voluntarily, if they consent, through a Deed of Variation.

4. What if I don't own much? Should I still write a will?

Yes. Even a small bank balance, jewellery, or your burial wishes should be recorded. A will is not only about wealth but also guardianship of children and protecting family rights.

5. What about my overseas property?

This draft will covers assets in the UK. If you own property abroad, you should also prepare a will in that country or seek advice to ensure it is covered.

6. Can I change my will later?

Yes. You can revoke your old will at any time and write a new one. It's recommended to review it every 3 years or after major life changes (marriage, children, divorce, inheritance).

7. Do I need a solicitor?

Not always. This free will is valid for most people. But if you own a business, have a very large estate, or international assets, a solicitor should check your will for tax and legal issues.

8. What happens if I die without a will?

UK law (not Shari'a) decides who inherits. This often leads to disputes and unfair distribution that does not follow Islamic inheritance rules.

9. Can I leave gifts to charity?

Yes. Up to one-third of your estate can be given to charity or non-heirs. This is a chance for sadaqah jariyah (ongoing charity).

10. Where should I keep my will?

Keep it in a safe place, and tell your executors where it is stored. Options include: at home, with your solicitor, or with a will storage service.

↘ Have questions? Need Expert Help?

For any inquiries on this project, reach out to:

The Team

Call +44755801482 or email:

Email: ar@flrr.co.uk

DM: @flrr

Visit: www.flrr.co.uk

Drafting Sharia Compliant Trusts: A Step-by-Step Guide

Discovery Call

Ensure assets go to the right people

Make your guardianship arrangements for your children

Reduce Inheritance Tax Liability and set up a Trust

and set up a track

FLRR

TERMS AND CONDITIONS APPLY.